Introduction

Through much of the Christian era and particularly at the time of the great Protestant Reformation, the general view among the faithful was that the Antichrist was the Church of Rome. However, in reaction to the devastating influence of the Reformation upon the Church of Rome, a Counter Reformation was mounted, led by the Jesuits. One of the main goals of the Counter Reformation was to construct an interpretation of prophecy that would hide the true identity of Antichrist and remove the stigma from the Church of Rome. To do this the Jesuits created a school of prophetic interpretation called the Futuristic system of interpretation. This school cleverly perverted the prophecies to make them appear to teach that the Antichrist would be a Jew who would rise in the future - probably after the Second Advent or the Rapture - and would fulfill the predictions concerning the Antichrist.

This school of thought was then insidiously infiltrated into the Protestant churches, commencing with the Plymouth brethren. As a result it gradually robbed the Protestant churches of their protest against the Church of Rome. One instrument in accomplishing this goal has been the Schofield Bible.

Significance of Revelation Chapter 13

Revelation 13 is one of the most significant amongst the prophetic chapters of Daniel and Revelation which deal with the Antichrist. The other chapters are Daniel 7, 8 and 11 and Revelation 17 and 18.

Structure of the chapter

The principle of repetition and enlargement, which is widely utilized in Scripture and is particularly evident in Daniel and Revelation, is employed in Revelation 13, which is structured as follows:

Structure of Revelation Chapter 13
Verses	Topic
1- 4	A brief sketch of Antichrist's career. His rise, reign, ruin, resurrection and restoration.
5-8	The reign of the first Beast (Antichrist)
9-10	The ruin of the first Beast (Antichrist)
11-12	The resurrection and restoration of the first beast and through whom it is accomplished.
13-15	The method by which it is accomplished.
16-17	The medium used to accomplish it.

Identifiers of the first Beast of Revelations 13

It is important to remember that there are two Antichrists. The first is Satan, the spiritual, invisible Antichrist, and the second is the earthly Antichrist identified in Revelation Chapter 13. Here at least fifteen specifications are presented by which the sincere searcher may identify the earthly Antichrist.¹

1. A political entity
2. Rises amid numerous peoples
3. One of seven political powers or empires opposed to God
4. Connected with Western Europe
5. Reigns when the powers of Western Europe are reigning
6. Connected with the four kingdoms of Daniel 7, that is, Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece and Rome
7. Seat of government is given to it by Imperial Rome
8. Becomes a universal (or catholic) power
9. Blasphemes
10. Persecutes and destroys the saints
11. Has a number - 666
12. Has political supremacy for 1260 years
13. Is mortally wounded
14. The wound heals
15. He is restored to world pre-eminence

We will now examine each of these identifying characteristics in turn.

1. A political entity

Then I stood on the sand of the sea. And I saw a beast rising up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his horns ten crowns, and on his heads a blasphemous name. Revelation 13:1

In prophecy a beast represents a political power or kingdom. As the prophet Daniel's divine instructor declared:

Those great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which arise out of the earth...

The fourth beast shall be a fourth kingdom on earth... Daniel 7:17,23

This reveals that the Antichrist will not be an individual but rather a political entity.

2. Rises amid numerous peoples

In prophecy, the sea represents a heavily populated region. The sea is comprised of water and the divine instruction is:

The waters which you saw, where the harlot sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and tongues. Revelation 17:15

3. One of seven political entities

...having seven heads...

The earthly Beast power is one of seven successive political powers (heads) in history that oppose God.

And I saw one of his heads as if it had been mortally wounded... v3

4. Connected with Western Europe

having...ten horns...

In the books of Daniel and Revelation these ten horns are mentioned ten times and every time they represent, at least initially, the ten divisions into which Western Rome separated in 476 AD

The ten horns are ten kings (kingdoms) who shall arise from this kingdom (Imperial Rome)... Daniel 7:24

Western Europe was the territory peculiar to Rome. The other territories which she conquered were territories peculiar to Greece, Persia and Babylon, etc. The ten divisions or kingdoms were formed from the Western division of the Roman Empire.

5. Reigns when the ten powers of Western Europe rule

...and on his horns ten crowns...

Crowns indicate sovereignty and the crowns upon the horns denote that the beast is in power when the ten horns are ruling; that is, when the Western European kingdoms had been formed and are in power. The ten kingdoms were established by 476 AD which means that Antichrist rises after that date.

6. Connected with the 4 kingdoms of Daniel 7

Now the beast which I saw was like a leopard, his feet were like the feet of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority. Revelation 13:2

These four beasts have already been introduced in Daniel 7 and have been shown to represent the four universal kingdoms of history.

Beast	Political Power
The Lion	Babylon
The Bear	Medo-Persia
The Leopard	Greece
The Non-descript or Dragon	Imperial Rome

...his mouth like the mouth of a lion...

The Antichrist is Babylon's mouth piece. When the Antichrist speaks, it is Babylon speaking. About the close of the nineteenth century, Dr. Alexander Hislop of the Church of Scotland wrote an outstanding, scholarly work entitled: The Two Babylons. In it he produced amazing and indisputable evidence that the Church of Rome, under a christian cloak, is identical with the pagan religion of ancient Babylon which was instituted by the infamous Nimrod and his immoral wife Ishtar, or Semiramis.

7. Receives its seat of government from Imperial Rome

...The dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority.

The dragon is first mentioned in Revelation 12 and is shown there to represent Imperial Rome, which was used by Satan to try to destroy the Christ-child.⁴ Did Imperial Rome give its seat of government to any other power? It did, and this transpired in 330 AD when Constantine the Great removed the seat of government from Rome on the Tiber to the new Rome, Constantinople on the Bosphorus (Istanbul).

As for Imperial Rome's ancient seat on the Tiber, the historians record as follows:

When the Roman Empire became Christian, and the peace of the Church was guaranteed, the Emperor left Rome to the Pope, to be the seat of the authority of ⁴ See, A.P.Cooke, War on God's Woman, (Sydney: Self-published, 1985).

*the Vicar of Christ, who should reign there independent of all human authority, to the consummation of ages, to the end of time.*⁵

*The removal of the capital of the empire from Rome to Constantinople in 330 AD left the Western Church practically free from imperial power, to develop its own form of organization. The Bishop of Rome, in the seat of the Caesars, was now the greatest man in the West, and was soon forced to become the political as well as the spiritual head.*⁶

*And meekly stepping to the throne of Caesar, the Vicar of Christ took up the scepter to which the emperor and kings of Europe were to bow in reverence through so many ages.*⁷

In the Room of Constantine in the Vatican palace there are four superb paintings. The fourth one is entitled, The Donation of Constantine. It depicts the Roman emperor about to depart from Rome for Constantinople. He is presenting a statue of a warrior to the Bishop of Rome, representing the transfer of the city of Rome to the Papacy. This painting has been proved to be a forgery but it has been used by the Papacy to prove its authority for her religious and political claims. It is an acknowledgment from the Papacy that she received her seat from Imperial Rome.

Imperial Rome didn't just give the Papacy a political base; it gave her power and great authority. This was fulfilled by emperor Justinian when he officially decreed the Bishop of Rome to be the universal bishop of the world and the corrector of heretics in 533 AD.⁸ However this level of authority was useless without the political and military power to enforce it. This was supplied in 538 AD when the Emperor Justinian quelled all resistance to the Papacy and enforced submission to it. Subsequently hundreds of thousands of non-Catholics were slaughtered as they attempted to flee the empire.⁹

8. Becomes a universal political power

...they worshipped the beast... v4

...And authority was given him over every tribe, tongue, and nation. v7

The word universal also means catholic. Thus this power will be a catholic, religious, political power.

9. Practices blasphemy

...on his heads a blasphemous name. v1

...a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies... v5

...he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God... v6

According to Scripture, blasphemy is the practice of usurping the position, or claiming the prerogatives, of God.

*...Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?
Luke 5:21*

The Church of Rome claims to forgive sin. Catholic authorities state this fact:

*If anyone saith that the sacramental absolution of the priest is not a judicial act...
let him be anathema.*

If anyone saith that priests... have not the power of binding and of loosing, or that not priests alone are ministers of absolution, let him be anathema.¹⁰

To pardon a single sin requires all the omnipotence of God...¹¹

The priest not only declares that the sinner is forgiven, but he really forgives him... so great is the power of the priest, that the judgments of heaven itself are subject to his decision.¹²

The poor sinner kneels at his confessor's feet. He knows he is not speaking to an ordinary man, but to another Christ. He hears the words, 'I absolve thy sins' and the hidden load of sins drops from his soul forever.¹³

A priest, in absolving a sinner, performs the very office of the Holy Ghost in the sanctification of souls.¹⁴

Another form of blasphemy is also indicated in the gospel of John.

For a good work we do not stone you, but for blasphemy; and because you, being a man, make yourself God. John 10:33

The Papacy defies man. It makes claims that should pertain only to God. Again, Catholic authorities confirm this fact:

We define that the holy Apostolic See and the Roman Pontiff holds the primacy over the wide world and that the Roman Pontiff himself is the successor of the blessed Peter... the father and doctor of all Christians; and that to him... was given... full power to feed, rule and govern the universal church.¹⁵

In a large, authentic work by F. Lucii Ferraris, titled Prompta Bibliotheca Canonica Juridica Moralis Theologica printed in Rome in 1800 and sanctioned by the Catholic Encyclopedia (VI:48) we find the following statement regarding the power of the Pope:

The Pope is of so great dignity and so exalted that he is not a mere man, but as it were God, and the vicar of God...

Hence the Pope is crowned with a triple crown, as king of heaven and of earth and of the lower regions...

The Pope is as it were God on earth, sole sovereign of the faithful of Christ, chief of kings, having plenitude of power, to whom has been entrusted by the omnipotent God direction not only of the earthly but also of the heavenly kingdom.¹⁶

The Catholic Encyclopedia says of the Pope:

The sentences which he gives are to be forthwith ratified in heaven.¹⁷

Pope Leo XIII said:

But the supreme teacher in the Church is the Roman Pontiff. Union of minds, therefore, requires, together with a perfect accord in the one faith, complete submission and obedience of will to the Church and to the Roman Pontiff, as to God Himself.

We hold upon this earth the place of God Almighty.¹⁸

In this encyclical, as well as capitalizing all pronouns which refer to God, the Pope has also capitalized those which refer to himself.

Alphonsus de Liguori, a beatified doctor of the Roman church, claims the same power for the Roman priests. He says:

The priest has the power of the keys, or the power of delivering sinners from hell, of making them worthy of paradise, and of changing them from the slaves of Satan into the children of God. And God himself is obliged to abide by the judgment of his priests.... The sovereign Master of the universe only follows the servant by confirming in heaven all that the latter decides upon earth.¹⁹

Pope Innocent III wrote:

*Indeed, it is not too much to say that in view of the sublimity of their offices, the priests are so many gods.*¹⁸

*The Pope is not only the representative of Jesus Christ but HE IS JESUS CHRIST HIMSELF hidden under the veil of flesh.*²⁰ (Author's emphasis).

*In 1335 Bishop Alvarez Pelayo laid down the doctrine that as Christ partook of the nature of God, so the Pope... is not simply a man, but rather a God on earth.*²¹

Then he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His name, His tabernacle, and those who dwell in heaven. v6

The above claims of the Pope amount to blasphemy against God's name, however the Papacy also blasphemes God's tabernacle. God's tabernacle is the sanctuary in heaven.

Now this is the main point of the things we are saying: We have such a High Priest, who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, a Minister of the sanctuary and of the true tabernacle which the Lord erected, and not man. Hebrews 8:1-2

The temple of the tabernacle...in heaven was opened. Revelation 15:5

The Papacy has blasphemed God's heavenly tabernacle by setting up an earthly counterfeit tabernacle, in which are offered counterfeit sacrifices by a counterfeit priesthood to a counterfeit god.

The Papacy also blasphemes those who dwell in heaven. Apart from the Godhead, the other dwellers in heaven are the millions of angels, the messengers of God. The Papacy blasphemes them by claiming that the priests are greater than the angels and that the Pope can even excommunicate the angels.

*The sacerdotal (priestly) dignity also surpasses the dignity of the angels.... All the angels in heaven cannot absolve from a single sin...the holy archangel can chase away devils, but he cannot free his client from their claims till a priest comes to absolve him.... If I saw an angel and a priest, I would bend my knee first to the priest and then to the angel.*²²

*The Pope is crowned with a triple crown, as king of heaven and of earth and of the lower regions...so that if it were possible that the angels might err in the faith, they could be judged and excommunicated by the Pope...*²³

The church of Rome is also guilty of blasphemy in that she claims that the pope is the Vicar of Christ. Jesus Christ in the Gospel of John, chapters 14-16, clearly declared that the Vicar or representative of Christ on earth is the third person of the Godhead, The Holy Spirit.

10. A persecuting power

It was granted to him to make war with the saints and to overcome them... v7

The word saint means a holy one, that is, one who is free from sin - one who belongs to God. The only way anyone can be free from his sins is by accepting the gospel of Christ and applying the shed blood of Christ as payment for his sins.

...the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanses us from all sin. I John 1:7

This action involves only true believers in Christ, that is, true Christians. However the Papacy has made war on true Christians. Note the official attitude of the Papacy toward those who dissent.

Much more can heretics (dissenters) after they are convicted of heresy, be not only forthwith excommunicated, but as surely put to death.²⁴

When she thinks it good to use physical force, she will use it... But will the Catholic Church give bond that she will not persecute at all? ...The Catholic Church gives no bonds for her good behavior.²⁵

Professor Baudrillart, Rector of the Catholic Institute of Paris and later a cardinal, writes that the Papacy has employed physical force against dissenters:

The Catholic Church...loudly proclaims that she has a 'horror of blood.' Nevertheless when confronted by heresy she...has recourse to force, to corporal punishment, to torture. She creates tribunals like those of the Inquisition... encourages a crusade, or a religious war.... Especially did she act thus in the sixteenth century with regard to Protestants...she lit in Italy, in the Low countries and above all in Spain the funeral piles of the Inquisition. In France...and in England...she tortured the heretics whilst both in France and Germany...she encouraged and actively aided the religious wars. No one will deny that we have here a great scandal to our contemporaries...."

Indeed, even among our friends and our brothers we find those who dare not look this problem in the face. They ask permission from the Church to ignore or even deny all those acts and institutions in the past which have made orthodoxy compulsory.²⁶

This book bears the sanction of the Roman Catholic authorities, and of their "Censor".

Dr J. Dowling wrote:

From the birth of Popery in 606, to the present time, it is estimated by careful and credible historians, that more than fifty million of the human family, have been slaughtered for the crime of heresy by popish persecutors, an average of more than forty thousand religious murders for every year of the existence of Popery.²⁷

Dr. W.E.H. Lecky wrote:

That the Church of Rome has shed more innocent blood than any other institution that has ever existed among man kind, will be questioned by no Protestant who has a competent knowledge of history. The memorials, indeed, of many of her persecutions are now so scanty, that it is impossible to form a complete conception of the multitude of her victims, and it is quite certain that no power of imagination can adequately realize their sufferings.²⁸

The Anglican Scholar, Dr. H. Grattan Guinness, wrote:

It has been calculated that the popes of Rome have directly or indirectly slain 50 millions of men and women who refused to be parties to Romish idolatries, who held to the Bible as the Word of God.²⁹

These distasteful accounts of history abundantly confirm that the Papacy fulfils this tenth specification of the Antichrist.

11. Has a number - 666

Here is wisdom. Let him who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man: His number is 666. v18 (See Appendix A)

In the Catholic Douay version of the Bible, 1914 Edition, there is a footnote inserted by the Catholic translators which reads:

666. The numeral letters of his name shall make up this number.

This name represents the number of a man. The man predominant in the Papal system is unquestionably the Pope. The title pope means father. The word Papacy is also from the word father. This is in spite of Jesus' command:

But you, do not be called 'Rabbi'; for One is your Teacher, the Christ and you are all brethren. Do not call anyone on earth your father; for One is your Father, He who is in heaven. Matthew 23:8-9

The holy father is the man of the Papacy. As footnoted in the 1914 edition of the Douay Bible the numeral letters of his name, then, should make up the number 666. Therefore it is essential that the official name of the Bishop of Rome be confirmed, following the instruction in the footnote of the official Catholic Bible.

Six Catholic authorities are unanimous that the official name or title of the Pope is Vicarius Filii Dei, that is, Vicar of the Son of God. These authorities are:

1. The Decretum of Gratian - the founder of the science of Canon Law - 1148-1582 AD
2. The Revised Edition of the above authority - 1582 until now.
3. The Roman Catholic Encyclopedia of F. Lucii Ferraris, Volume 6, page 48.

5. Philippe Labbe a distinguished Jesuit writer, Sacrosancta Concilia Ad Regiam Editionem Exacta. (Volume 1, page 1534).
6. Cardinal Gibbons, Baltimore, USA ,1904, in an official letter to an enquirer wrote:
On past occasions, at the coronation of the Popes, the presiding cardinal archdeacon, as he placed the crown upon the head of the new pope declared:
“Vicarius Filii Dei - Vicar of the Son of God”.

When Pope Paul VI was crowned pope in St. Peters, Rome, it was televised. The author distinctly heard the cardinal declare, as he placed the tiara on the head of Paul: Vicarius Filii Dei!

Calculating the number

Let us check that the numbers of the name Vicarius Filii Dei add up to 666.

Latin - In the Latin language there are seven numerals (originally there were six).

V	=	5	F	=	0	D	=	500
I	=	1	I	=	1	E	=	0
C	=	100	L	=	50	I	=	1
A	=	0	I	=	1
R	=	0	I	=	1
I	=	1
U	=	5
		112	+		53	+		501 = 666

Without any manipulation each numeral of the Pope's title adds up to exactly 666.

John Wycliffe is regarded as The Morning Star of the Protestant Reformation. Wycliffe's followers were called Lollards. These believers claimed that 666 applied to one of the Pope's other titles, Dux Cleri. Walter Brute, a Welsh layman, Oxford graduate and martyr, is on record as applying Dux Cleri to the popes.³⁰ It is claimed that whenever the Pope signs an official document, the signature is Dux Cleri, meaning Head of the Clergy.

Significantly, this official signature also adds up to exactly 666.

D	=	500	C	=	100
U	=	5	L	=	50
X	=	10	E	=	0
			R	=	0
			I	=	1
		515	+		151 = 666

This means that whenever the Pope signs an official document, he signs 666.

It is interesting to note that when the identifying titles of Jesus Christ were nailed to the cross at Calvary, they were written in three languages.

*Now Pilate wrote a title and put it on the cross. And the writing was:
JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS.*

Then many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin. John 19:19-20.

The Antichrist may also be identified in the same three languages, and in all these three languages the Pope's name sums up to the numerals 666.

Hebrew - The Hebrew term for the Roman power was Romiith. Unlike Latin, every letter serves as a numeral in the Hebrew language.

R		O		M		I		I		TH
200	+	6	+	40	+	10	+	10	+	400	=	666

Greek - The Greek term for The Latin People (the Romans) was Lateinos. In the Greek language every letter also serves as a number.

Lateinos was the god of the year, the sun god, from whom the Latins claimed descent...they also claimed their language was a sacred language dedicated to the worship of their god...it seems little less than genius that the Latins were able to devise a numerical system in which when these six letters were chosen they added up to the number 666.³¹

³⁰ Le Roy Froom, The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers (Washington, DC: Review and Herald, 1954) 2:74. Edward B. Elliot, Horae Apocalypticae, 5 ed.(London: Seeley, Jackson and Halliday, 1862); Le Roy Froom, The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers (Washington, DC: Review and Herald, 1954), 2:74.

³¹ Murl Vance, The Trail of the Serpent (Pune, India: Oriental Watchman Publishing 1991),119-120.

While The Latins (Grk Lateinos) was originally applied to the Romans, the Latin language became central to the Papal system of worship.

*They Latinize in everything. Mass, prayers, hymns, Litanies, Canons, Decretals, Bulls – all are in Latin. The Papal councils speak Latin. The Latin Vulgate...is the only authentic Version. All things with them are Latin.*³²

*The pope still speaks and writes...in his official capacity in Latin. Latin is stamped on the whole papal system.*³³

It is not surprising that the head of such a system would be flagged in prophecy and identified by the number of the name, as follows:

$$\text{L A T E I N O S} \\ 30 + 1 + 300 + 5 + 10 + 50 + 70 + 200 = \mathbf{666}$$

The number 666 was sacred to sun worship. It originated in Babylon and had great significance.

*It was the great master summary number of paganism. It sums up all 36 gods of the Babylonian astrological system. (The summary number of 36 is 666).*³⁴

*666 had a widespread use in the mysteries as a secret number referring to Lucifer and to his earthly representative or mouthpiece...there may be far more to the xxx (666) found so frequently in mystic and church art than appears on the surface.*³⁵

*The sacred solar seal with its 36 numbered compartments added up to 666. This was the Sigillum Solus, seal of the sun, with which Jesus was sealed in the tomb (Matthew 27:62-66). This number 'holds in its embrace the whole realm of pagan deities. This number summarizes, as does no other sacred number in all paganism, the gamut of pagan idolatry – it is above all others the truly universal number of the apostasy ... these numbers apply in a peculiar and significant way to any religion which is based on astrology and claims universality.'*³⁶

The number 666 lies in the very nature of pagan idolatry, which as we have seen, is nothing but disguised demon worship.

*Father Montfaucon tells us that demon worship was carried on in the early church by those claiming to be bishops of Christ.*³⁷

This occurred when the church was descending into apostasy.

³⁴ Adding every number from 1 to 36 totals 666. Thus 36 is the summary number for 666.

³⁴ Murl Vance,112.

³⁴ Ibid., 85.

³⁷ Ibid., 104 -108.

There is also a connection between the three fingers of the "blessing hand" and three 'waws' or 6's³⁸ which we must not overlook. The Jesuit Kircher pictures this hand with three commas on the upraised fingers and we find the same marking repeatedly in the works of the secret societies...the history of three upraised fingers, or two fingers and a thumb, as used in the blessing hand runs very deeply into paganism.³⁹

Thus, whenever the Pope presents his hand in blessing, he is actually invoking the power of Lucifer.

The Babylonian priests wore a popular amulet which contained numbers in a square that added up to 666. The Roman priests wore a similar amulet which had the same numbers.

12. Politically supreme for 1260 years

...he was given authority to continue for forty-two months. v5

The margin reads to make war for forty-two months.

He was allowed to exert authority for forty-two months. (Moffatt, Phillips)

This is a symbolic prophecy. Therefore any time mentioned in the prophecy must be taken as symbolic. This is an important principle of prophetic interpretation.

Remember, however, that symbols in prophecy only apply until the Second Advent. Therefore the time period of Revelation 13 must begin prior to the Second Advent and must have a symbolic application - specifically, a day for a year.⁴⁰

In a Bible month there are 30 days. Therefore forty-two months calculates to 1260 symbolic days or 1260 literal years. This time period is mentioned seven times in the books of Daniel and Revelation and it always refers to the same period. It is an important key in the prophetic interpretation of these books. (See diagram in Appendix B).

Any attempt to give this period a literal application of three and a half literal years must always be rejected. The Jesuit Futuristic system uses this method in an attempt to destroy this vital key and thereby avoid the stigma of the Papacy being identified as the Antichrist.

The year when the Papacy achieved political supremacy was 538 AD. Four events transpired in 538 AD which led to the Papacy becoming supreme at that time:

1. The Arian (anti-Catholic) kingdom of the Ostrogoths who had controlled Italy, was conquered and by 554 AD had been completely subdued and soon disappeared. This was one of the three kingdoms that had stood in the Papacy's path to political power.⁴¹
2. Roman Catholicism was made the official religion of the state. In 533 AD Justinian had decreed the Pope to be the Universal Bishop of the World and the Corrector

³⁸ http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Waw_\(letter\))

³⁹ Ibid., 113, 126.

⁴⁰ The principle of a year representing a day in Bible prophecy is confirmed in Ezekiel 4:6 I assign you a day for each year. RSV.

⁴¹ The three kingdoms that were uprooted to make way for the supremacy of the Papacy were the Vandals, the Ostrogoths, and the Visigoths.

- of Heretics*. In 538 AD this decree was made effective. This commenced a new era in history. It marked the commencement of the Middle Ages.⁴²
3. In 538 AD the Papacy itself underwent a great change. Until this year the Bishops of Rome were counted as saints, but from 538 onwards, since they were now political rulers, they were considered as rulers of state.⁴³
 4. In 538 AD the persecution of non-Catholics commenced. Justinian decreed that all must join the Catholic Church or leave the empire and have their goods confiscated. This resulted in the flight and subsequent massacre of hundreds of thousands who endeavored to escape.⁴⁴

Darkness descends

The year 538 AD commenced the awful era of papal persecution that produced many millions of martyrs and which today is an embarrassment to many Catholics.⁴⁵

And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. v8

This was truly the situation in the world of the era over which the Papacy presided. All submitted except for a faithful minority of saints who were hounded, persecuted and martyred. 538 AD marked the beginning of the Middle Ages, previously known as The Dark Ages.

Because it was the period when the Papacy dominated Europe, the Catholic Church has undertaken to falsify the historical picture in order to improve her image. The Dark Ages have been glamorized as an age of chivalry, peace, unity and glory. Unfortunately, the exact opposite was the case. It was an age of oppression, superstition and fear. It was a time of feudalism, of appalling ignorance and of prolonged persecution. As the learned historian, Dr James Wylie declared

*The noon of the Papacy was the midnight of the world.*⁴⁶

Dr N. Summerbell wrote:

*The Dark Ages, introduced by the persecution of an enlightened church in the sanguinary wars of Justinian to exalt the Catholics, continued up to the fourteenth century. It was a long, dark night when ignorance, bigotry and cruelty reigned, and truth, purity and justice were crushed out.*⁴⁷

Another author also wrote:

*The noontide of the papacy was the world's moral midnight. The Holy Scriptures were almost unknown, not only to the people, but to the priests..... God's law, the standard of righteousness, having been removed, they exercised power without limit, and practiced vice without restraint. Fraud, avarice, and profligacy prevailed. Men shrank from no crime by which they could gain wealth or position..... For centuries Europe had made no progress in learning, arts, or civilization. A moral and intellectual paralysis had fallen upon Christendom.*⁴⁸

The prediction in Revelation 13 stated that the beast was to continue to make war for forty-two months or 1260 years. The Papacy is the only power in history that has reigned supreme for that period of time, which covers the majority of the Christian era.

Many enquire as to the reason why Heaven would have permitted such a vast period of oppression, especially upon the saints of God. There are two probable reasons:

1. This world is an object lesson for the unfallen universe. In permitting the Papacy full reign, God revealed to the universe the results of the principles of Satan's rule. The Papacy is the masterpiece of Satan's deception and during the 1260 year period, the universe saw what would result when Satanic principles dominate.
2. The extended period of persecution kept the true church pure. Had affluence and popularity been its lot, it would have been ruined by corruption and apostasy, as was the early church. Persecution maintained the purity of the faith.

We now come to the thirteenth point of identification, which gives us the end point for the 1260 year period.

13. A mortal wound

And I saw one of his heads as if it had been mortally wounded... v3

mortally wounded (TCNT and Weymouth)

a death blow (NEB)

a mortal wound (RSV)

slain (margin KJV)

He who leads into captivity shall go into captivity; he who kills with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints. v10

This verse parallels the first part of v3.⁴⁹ The supremacy of the Papacy was to continue for 1260 years. Therefore the deadly blow would not be dealt until the 1260 years were concluded.

The 1260 years of Papal political power ended in 1798. It was in this year that the predictions were fulfilled concerning the deadly wound and of going into captivity and of being killed with the sword.

⁴⁹ At that time (1798) the pope was made captive by the French army, the papal power received its deadly wound and the prediction – He that leads into captivity shall go into captivity - was fulfilled. Cited in Ellen G. White, 439.

It is important to recognize that it was the head of the beast that received the deadly wound. It was not the Roman Catholic Church as such that was wounded or slain. The Catholic Church has continued to function.

The Papacy is a union of church and state, of religious and civil power. The beast represents the political aspect of the church. In Revelation 17, which is an amplification of Revelation 13, the religious element is symbolized by the harlot and the civil or political element is symbolized by the seven-headed beast on which the harlot rides.

An incorrect application

Some claim that the deadly wound was administered by the Protestant Reformation of the 16th century; but that event occurred before the close of the 1260 year period. The Reformation hurt the Catholic Church in certain countries of Europe, but it did not slay the political element. The Papacy continued to war against the saints more strongly than ever. It organized the Counter Reformation which amounted to open war against Protestantism. The Papacy established the terrible order of the Jesuits, whose sole purpose was to destroy Protestantism and to elevate the position of the Papacy. The Papacy inspired the Thirty Years War in an endeavour to win Europe back to Catholicism. The Papacy was alive and well after the Reformation.

The deadly wound to the head of the Papacy occurred in 1798 at the behest of the Revolutionary government of France. It directed General Berthier to invade Italy and destroy the Papacy.

There is one thing more essential to the attainment of the end desired and that is to destroy, if possible, the centre of unity of the Roman Church.⁵⁰

In response Berthier arrested Pope Pius VI and gave orders for the abolition of the Papacy. He carried the Pope prisoner to France where he died the following year. Italy was declared a republic. This momentous event was recognized by authorities as the death-knell of the Papacy.

Berthier entered Rome on the 10th of February, 1798 and proclaimed a republic. ...Half of Europe thought Napoleon's veto would be obeyed and that with the pope the Papacy was dead.⁵¹

Orators deliver its (the Papacy's) funeral oration with a joyous blasphemous irony. It has ceased to exist. It well seems as if everything were finished.⁵²

Rarely during all its history has the church known a more critical situation.... In short, Catholicism as a whole seems dying.⁵³

The stripping of the church's political power constituted the deadly wound. The church continued as a religious body but the political element was destroyed. A secular government was established.

...a proclamation was issued, declaring...a free and independent republic, under the special protection of the French army. A provisional government was acknowledged, as established by the sovereign people; and every other temporal authority emanating from the pope was suppressed, nor was he any longer to exercise any function.⁵⁴

It was the Papal government that was slain. While various attempts were made to recover her political power, they were not successful. After seventy years of lingering between life and death, the Papacy gave its last gasp when Victor Emmanuel annexed the Papal territories and became the political head of Italy. (See Appendix C for detailed historical data). However the initial wound had been inflicted in 1798.

14. The wound heals

...and his deadly wound was healed... v3

If the inflicting of the wound was the loss of the Papacy's political power, then the healing of the wound would be the restoration of its political power. At the turn of the 18th century the world in general believed that the Papacy was finished. To all appearances the restoration of its former power appeared to be an impossibility, but the Biblical prediction 1900 years before had declared that its deadly wound would be healed.

Today the fulfillment of this prediction is indisputable. The Papacy's political power has revived. An almost unbelievable change has occurred. The recovery began around the time of the Great War of 1914 -1918 and climaxed in 1929. In that year Mussolini, dictator of Italy, officially restored to the Papacy her political power. The Pope became a king again: he had the right to rule. He was able to re-establish the Papal court and the Papacy was once again recognized as a political entity.

The author remembers this event on June 7, 1929 very well. He was twelve years old and he had a large newspaper delivery service to many residences in his home town of Whangarei, New Zealand. Banner headlines in the newspaper, announced, "The Pope is King Again!" This was also front page news in the New York Times of that date.⁵⁵

In the concordat with the Catholic Church, Mussolini had restored the political power of the church. This had been stripped from it by Revolutionary France in 1798. The papal court was re-established. Ambassadors were appointed. The papal coinage was restored along with her official flag and many other political offices. In the concordat the Vatican agreed to the transfer of the Papal States to the Italian nation and the Italian government paid several hundred million Italian liras (US$39,000,000) for this transaction. A few months later the United States Federal Reserve, which is owned and controlled by the Vatican, engineered the Universal Depression. This resulted in extreme devaluation of all commercial products, opening the way for the Vatican to invest the millions it had received from the Italian government. The result has been that the Vatican is now the wealthiest organization in the world and controls most of the world's finances.⁵⁶

To commemorate the treaty, Mussolini constructed a special street leading from the city of Rome to the Vatican, called The Avenue of Reconciliation. This treaty was recognized and published as a healing.

*A crowd, tense with excitement, is here to witness the passage of these two men (Mussolini and Cardinal Gaspari) whose pen will HEAL A WOUND of fifty-nine years.*⁵⁷ (Author's emphasis)

*In affixing their autographs to the memorable document, HEALING THE WOUND which festered since the 1700's, extreme cordiality was displayed on both sides.*⁵⁸

More than eighteen hundred years after the prediction by the apostle John in the Book of Revelation, the identical term was unwittingly employed to describe the fulfillment of this remarkable prophecy.

15. Antichrist's power is restored

...And all the world marveled and followed the beast. v3

...and they worshipped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?" v4

...and causes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast (Papacy), whose deadly wound was healed. v12

Since 1929 the Papacy's revival and restoration has amazed the world. One hundred years ago, no Roman Catholic could hold public office in Great Britain or the United States. The Roman Catholic Church was a hated and despised church. It was considered by millions to be unchristian, pagan, idolatrous, degrading, oppressive and a curse to the community.

Today Roman Catholicism is looked upon in exactly the opposite light. This represents an amazing reversal of public opinion. In Great Britain Catholic institutions are more powerful than before the Reformation. In the USA the position of the Papacy is even more impressive. She occupies a dominant position with regard to its policies and matters of control. As J. Rickaby of the Society of Jesuits, declared:

*Yet since then (1798) the Papacy has been lifted to a pinnacle of spiritual power unreached maybe since earliest Christian history.*⁵⁹

*The place of the Papacy in world affairs seems to stand out in bolder relief than at almost any other epoch of its long existence.*⁶⁰

*As it reached the Atomic Age, the Catholic Church found itself in perhaps the most powerful condition in its history, in terms of numbers, influence and prestige.*⁶¹

Today, the Pope's words and actions are considered to be of sufficient significance to be broadcast around the world.

The extent of Antichrist's end-time power

...And all the world marveled and followed the beast. v3

Various translations concur that the extent of Antichrist's restoration will be worldwide.

The whole earth went after the beast in wonder. (Moffatt)

The whole earth went after the beast in amazement and wonder. (Amp. Bible)

The whole earth went after the beast with wonder. (RSV)

The whole earth went after the beast in wondering admiration. (NEB)

The whole earth followed the animal with wonder. (Phillips)

The whole earth was amazed and followed the beast. (GNB)

How Antichrist will attain world dominion

Revelation 13:11-17 reveals how the Papacy (Antichrist) will attain world dominion. One nation in particular will enforce Papal recognition and special methods will be employed to bring about universal acceptance of papal worship.⁶²

This is a tremendous prediction which reveals how world events will finally work out. The ultimate power to wield world control will not be Russia, China, Islam, or any other such entity. It will be the Papacy.

Conclusion

In the final conflict that is soon to envelop the world there will only be two sides; two groups of people. There will be those who worship and obey the Beast and those who worship and obey the Lamb. It will be a choice between truth and tradition; the law of God and the laws of men, between Jesus Christ and Antichrist.

Appendix A – Danger of revealing Masonic secrets

Murl Vance was considered by some to be the greatest authority on the number 666. He was a theology graduate from Pacific Union College in the United States of America. He spent twenty years researching the number 666, and produced 25,000 pages of microfilmed evidence in support of the claim that the number 666 is the master number of paganism and of the secret societies such as Freemasonry and, in particular, Catholicism.

Vance proved beyond question that 666 truly applies to the Pope and identifies him as the disguised High Priest of Witchcraft, a position which originated in ancient Babylon. The ex-Jesuit Alberto Reveira has confirmed this. He claims that the Popes, in their use of the twisted crucifix - the insignia of witchcraft – are demonstrating that the Papacy is ancient witchcraft under a Christian cloak.

While the author was visiting Murl Vance in Los Angeles in 1956, Murl Vance donated to him a copy of his extended research. This was subsequently published in India in two volumes entitled, The Trail of the Serpent and Breaking the Code of the Secret Societies.

The penalty for disclosing such secrets is death. It appears that as a result of his disclosures, Murl Vance was found dead in his private quarters after a visit by two large individuals disguised as Catholic nuns.

Further indisputable evidence in regard to the number 666 is found in this recent outstanding scholarly work of 800 odd pages:

Dr.Edwin de Kock, The Truth About 666! The Story of the Great Apostasy. (Edinburg, TX: Self-published, 2011).

Appendix C - The mortal wound to the Papacy

A historical record of how the Papacy's mortal wound was inflicted is found in Volume IX (Italy) of the encyclopedia Historians History of the World (1908 edition):

*In 1798 General Berthier, at the order of the French Government...in February, 1798, occupied its capital (Rome). Their General demanded that the pope should resign his temporal sovereignty, retaining his universal bishopric, and receiving a large pension. Pius obstinately refusing, was carried into Tuscany and thence into France, where he died.... On the 20th March, 1798 the constitution of the Roman or Tiberine Republic was formally proclaimed.*⁶⁴ (p 556)

In 1799 the French armies were forced to withdraw from Italy.

In 1800 a new Pope was elected, who was restored to rulership of the Tiberine; the Roman Republic.

Meanwhile the old Pope having died the preceding year, a conclave which opened at Venice in March, 1800, had raised to the papal chair, Cardinal Chiaramonti...he was allowed by all parties to return to Rome and assume the government of the provinces which had formed the Tiberine Republic. (p 564)

In 1809 the Papal throne was again overturned. ...The Papal state was openly claimed as a fief hold under Napoleon....

In May, 1809, Napoleon dated...a decree which annexed to the French Empire those provinces of the papal state which had not already been seized. The Pope....was transported into France...where he was kept a close prisoner till 1811. (p 571)

After the fall of the popedom, an attempt was made to give unity and a show of independence to the Italian provinces of the empire. (p 573)

After the fall of Napoleon Bonaparte in 1815, most of the territories of the church in Italy were restored to the Pope. An attempt was made to restore the pre-Napoleonic conditions, but a new spirit of national independence was astir. Insurrection broke out in the Papal States due to the maladministration of Popes Leo XII and Pius VIII.

The subjects of the papal provinces declared openly against the temporal sovereignty of the pope, and on the 26th February, deputies from all the revolted states united in proclaiming a new republic. (p 586)

However, the political heads of the allied nations put down these insurrections by arms. The Holy See had all its possessions restored and

...the leading powers of Europe interposed to recommend concessions by the Pope to his subjects.

⁶⁴ Henry Smith Williams (compiler), Historians' History of the World, (Edinburgh: Morrison & Gibb Limited, 1908), IX:556.

The following events occurred:

1848 - Insurrection in Rome. The minister of Pius IX was assassinated. The Pope fled to Gaeta.

1849 - A Republic was declared in Rome under Mazzini. However France sent an army to Italy, which restored the Pope's position. (p.597)

1870 - The French leave Rome. Victor Emmanuel enters Rome and annexes the Papal Territories to Italy. The Pope appeals to the King of Prussia, but in vain. The Pope retires to the Vatican and styles himself in protest The Prisoner of the Vatican and refuses to leave. (p. 622-623)

It is clear that 1798 marked the initial wounding of the Papacy. The election of another Pope did not necessarily restore Papal power. It was an attempt to do so, but the history summarized above shows that while the Papacy endeavored to regain control over the people of Italy, the people themselves rejected Papal authority.

The Pope was kept in office by foreign powers, not by the support of his own people. Finally the support of all foreign powers was withdrawn and the Pope in styling himself as a prisoner of the Vatican in effect admitted that his political power had vanished.
